Course Description

Principle 5 of the Singapore Code of Corporate Governance states that "The Board undertakes a formal annual assessment of its effectiveness as a whole, and that of each of its board committees and individual directors." Many boards view these annual assessments as a compliance exercise, and often resort to doing just enough to get by. However, when applied judiciously, the effectiveness assessment can be a powerful tool in improving a board's performance. Join us as we delve deeper, and discuss how NRCs can play a pivotal role in changing the paradigm around assessing board effectiveness.

Programme

9.00am	Opening remarks and brief introduction of SID NRC Chapter
9.15am	Presentation by Alvin Chiang
10.15am	Question and Answer session
11.00am	End of Programme

Speaker

Alvin Chiang Consultant, Russell Reynolds Associates

Mr Alvin Chiang partners with regional and international clients on their leadership and governance challenges. Based in Singapore, he utilises his expertise and experience to help directors and CEOs better understand the nuances of governance, as well as enhance performance and improve dynamics within their boards. He has spent time in commercial and consulting roles, his last role as the Chief Strategy Officer of a Singapore-listed construction firm. Before that he was a Senior Manager in PwC's Risk Assurance practice, where he advised boards on corporate governance and enterprise risk.
