Join us for a unique networking social, a Mooncake and Tea Appreciation workshop to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival 2018. Tea helps to cut through the richness of the mooncakes (which just gives you a good reason to eat more of them), but they also help to enhance the flavours of the pastry if you know which tea to pair them with. While there isn't a hard-and-fast rule when it comes to tea and mooncake pairing, certain brews just go better with certain mooncakes.

Newby is a luxury brand for premium teas of British heritage, with over 80 premium blends that are created by selecting the finest tea leaves during the prime harvest season. Apart from selecting the best tea, Newby has the state-of-the art preservation and packaging facility to ensure that the character and freshness of the tea is preserved. Recognised internationally for their outstanding quality, Newby Tea supplies to leading hospitality brands such as Waku Ghin at Marina Bay Sands, Marriott, The Ritz-Carlton, Jumeirah Group, Starwood Hotels & Resort, Hyatt Hotels & Resorts, Four Seasons, Oberoi Hotels, Samadhi Retreats and more.

Tea connoisseurs from Newby Tea shall reveal the secrets of tea to you in a fun and interactive way. It is a hands-on session and will cover the following areas:

- Where tea comes from
- The different classes of tea
- How tea is processed
- How to select quality tea
- How to brew the perfect cup
- How to store tea

This intimate session provides a great opportunity for fellow members to interact and learn more about the different types of tea that make your mooncakes taste better.

Seats are very limited. To avoid disappointment, REGISTER NOW!
